A GEORGIA DUEL.

Ex-Treasurer Renfroe Challenges Gen. W. T. Wofford.

Atlanta Special to the Augusta Evening News. Several days past a select few have known of a duel on the tapis between Col. John W. Renfroe and Gen. W. T. Wofford at LaGrange, during the gubernatorial campaign, in which Wofford called Renfroe a thief. Ex-Gov. Smith acted as Renfroe's second, and was the bearer of a note to Wofford, who declined to receive it on the ground that Renfroe was not a gentleman. This placed Gov. Smith in the place of his principal, and in an awkward position.

Gen. Wofford, it is said, brought a shot gun with him when he came from home a few days ago to Atlanta. He was taken sick at the Kim-Bleckley were members. The name of the third party is unknown to me at present, and they have decided that Renfroe is a gentleman. This action of the board necessitates Gen. Wofford to accede to Renfroe's demand for satisfaction, or back square out. Gen. Wofford is lying on his sick bed in Cartersville, and nothing can be done until he recovers. The matter is entirely secret,

Thanks to Democrats.

MARYVILLE, TENN., Nov. 18. MR. EDITOR:-Do you see our Blount County Democrat occasionally? Well, if you notice it is wonderfully prolific in it; thanks to its editor for party services rendered in the late contest. He appears to be one of the most soundly thanked men in the whole country. The Democrat thanks him in every issue, the republicans have been thanking him, and for some time talked of calling a public meeting for the purpose of adopting resolutions of thanks to him for the services he rendered his party in showing it in its true light. His services simply aided in rolling in a majority of 715 for Garfield; 739 for Hawkins, et cetera. Printers ink, extravegant expreseions, bitter denunciations, compul ory "50-4" literally poured from him, to say nothing of the midnight walks of some of his partisan understrap-

Last August when Hawkins and Elwards spoke here, there was a proce-sion getten up on the spur of the Democrat in commenting on it said: * * * "We were somewhat surprised at the demonstration made by our republican friends. * * * Including the head of the procession, the candidate and his driver, the colored brass band and the rag tag and bob-tail which came after the band wegon, we counted 78 persons in the procession. How the mighty have fallen! * * Now they go about the streets like mourners. They are as gentle as ambs and have no enthusiasm." * Comment is unnecessary. Blount rallied in 739 majority for Hawkins. The republicans are gentle as lambs, but it is some of their neighbors who 'go about the streets like mourners." Again in the same issue there is the ollowing: "The democracy of Blount will be found sound on the great questions of the day, and will be found at the Prophetic! The mantle of Elijah was perhaps fluttering over the shoulders of that editor. The last heard of the "democracy of Blount" it did sound" as if there was only emptiness of it, while many who had not been acting with them could hear nothing but the "sound," and were found at the proper place on election day, voting the republican ticket. "How the mighty have fallen!"

Yes, the republicans join the Demorat in its thanks.
